My family went to the library.

We went over to the desk.

“Here is your library card,”
the librarian said.

Dad and I went over to the bookshelves.

“I like this book,”
I said.

Mom and I went over to the computer.

“I like this game,”
I said.

Dad and I went over to the table.

“I like this book,”
I said.

Mom and I went over to the puzzles.

I said,
“I like this puzzle.”

We went
over to the desk.

“Here is your game,”
said the librarian.

“Here are your books.
Here is your puzzle, too,”
he said.

“I like the library,”
I said.

Library Fun

There are lots of things to do at the library besides borrow books. You can play board games, listen to music, make copies, and borrow movies. You can also listen to storytellers. At some libraries you can get help with your homework or your computer, too.

A Special Trip

A child and her parents find out about the many things they can borrow from the library.
